THE PSALM OF INTRODUCTION—PSALM 103

Reader: Bless the Lord, O my soul; O Lord my God, Thou hast been magnified exceedingly. Confession and majesty hast Thou put on, Who coverest Thyself with light as with a garment, Who stretchest out the heaven as it were a curtain; Who supporteth His chambers in the waters, Who appointeth the clouds for His ascent, Who walketh upon the wings of the winds, Who maketh His angels spirits, and His ministers a flame of fire.

Who establisheth the earth in the sureness thereof; it shall not be turned back forever and ever. The abyss like a garment is His mantle; upon the mountains shall the waters stand. At Thy rebuke they will flee, at the voice of Thy thunder shall they be afraid.

The mountains rise up and the plains sink down, unto the place where Thou hast established them. Thou appointedst a bound that they shall not pass, neither return to cover the earth. He sendeth forth springs in the valleys; between the mountains will the waters run. They shall give drink to all the beasts of the field; the wild asses will wait to quench their thirst. Beside them will the birds of the heaven lodge, from the midst of the rocks will they give voice.

He watereth the mountains from His chambers; the earth shall be satisfied with the fruit of Thy works. He causeth the grass to grow for the cattle, and green herb for the service of men, to bring forth bread out of the earth; and wine maketh glad the heart of man. To make his face cheerful with oil; and bread strengtheneth man's heart.

The trees of the plain shall be satisfied, the cedars of Lebanon, which Thou hast planted. There will the sparrows make their nests; the house of the heron is chief among them. The high mountains are a refuge for the harts, and so is the rock for the hares.

He hath made the moon for seasons; the sun knoweth his going down. Thou appointedst the darkness, and there was the night, wherein all the beasts of the forest will go abroad; young lions roaring after their prey, and seeking their food from God. The sun ariseth, and they are gathered together, and they lay them down in their dens. Man shall go forth unto his work, and to his labor until the evening. How magnified are Thy works, O Lord! In wisdom hast Thou made them all. The earth is filled with Thy creation. So is this great and spacious sea, wherein are things creeping innumerable, small living creatures with the great. There go the ships; there this leviathan, whom Thou hast made to play therein. All things wait on Thee, to give them their food in due season; when Thou givest it them, they will gather it. When Thou openest Thy hand, all things shall be filled with goodness; when Thou turnest away Thy face, they shall be troubled. Thou wilt take their spirit, and they shall cease; and unto their dust shall they return. Thou wilt send forth Thy Spirit, and they shall be created; and Thou shalt renew the face of the earth.

Let the glory of the Lord be unto the ages; the Lord will rejoice in His works. Who looketh on the earth and maketh it tremble, Who toucheth the mountains and they smoke. I will sing unto the Lord throughout my life, I will chant to my God for as long as I have my being.

May my words be sweet unto Him; I will rejoice in the Lord. O that sinners would cease from the earth, and they that work iniquity, that they should be no more. Bless the Lord, O my soul.

The sun knoweth his going down. Thou appointedst the darkness, and there was the night. How magnified are Thy works, O Lord! In wisdom hast Thou made them all.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; both now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia. Glory to Thee, O God. (THRICE)

Choir: Lord, have mercy. (forty times)

Leader: Through the prayers of our Holy Fathers, Lord Jesus Christ our God, have mercy upon us and save us.

Choir: Amen.

“O LORD I HAVE CRIED” IN TONE III

Choir: O Lord, I have cried out unto Thee, hear Thou me; hear Thou me, O Lord. O Lord, I have cried out unto Thee, hear Thou me. Give ear to the voice of my supplication when I cry out unto Thee: hear Thou me, O Lord.

Choir: Let my prayer be set forth before Thee as the incense, and the lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice; hear Thou me, O Lord.

- + Set a watch, O Lord, before my mouth, and a protecting door round about my lips.
- + Incline not my heart to evil words, to make excuses in sins.
- + With men that work iniquity; and I will not communicate with the choicest of them.
- + The just man shall correct me in mercy and shall reprove me; but let not the oil of the sinner anoint my head.
- + For my prayer also shall still be against the things with which they are well pleased; their judges falling upon the rock have been swallowed up.
- + They shall hear my words, for they are sweet; as when the thickness of the earth is broken upon the ground, their bones are scattered by the side of hell.
- + But to Thee, O Lord, Lord, are mine eyes; in Thee have I put my trust, take not away my soul.
- + Keep me from the snare which they have laid for me, and the traps of the workers of iniquity.
- + Let the wicked fall into their own nets, whilst I alone escape.
- + I cried unto the Lord with my voice, with my voice unto the Lord, did I make my supplication.
- + I poured out my supplication before Him; I showed before Him my trouble.

- + When my spirit was overwhelmed within me, then Thou knewest my path.
 - + In the way wherein I walked have they secretly laid a snare for me.
 - + I looked on my right hand, and beheld, but there was no man that would know me.
 - + Refuge failed me; no one cared for my soul.
 - + I cried unto Thee, O Lord; I said: Thou art my refuge and my portion in the land of the living.
 - + Attend unto my cry, for I am brought very low.
 - + Deliver me from my persecutors, for they are stronger than I.
- Verse 10. Bring my soul out of prison, that I may praise Thy Name.*
- Verse 9. The righteous shall wait for me until Thou recompense me.*
- Verse 8. Out of the depths have I cried to Thee, O Lord, Lord hear my voice.*
- Verse 7. Let Thine ears be attentive to the voice of my supplication.*

From the Pentecostarion in Tone III

Verse 6. If Thou, O Lord, shouldst mark iniquities, O Lord, who shall stand? For with Thee there is forgiveness.

The Word, Who is consubstantial with God the Father, * hath fashioned all things and granteth life unto all, * came forth from the Virgin, and assumed our flesh, * willingly becoming a man. * Since He is by nature good, * He hath poured forth for all His wise teachings  of ineffable wisdom.

Verse 5. Because of Thy Name have I waited for Thee, O Lord; my soul hath waited upon Thy word, my soul hath hoped in the Lord.

As the Law's Master Thou didst enter the court of the temple, * there Thou didst teach at Mid-feast, as is written, O Christ; * speaking with authority, Thou didst rebuke and censure the mindless scribes, * and all were amazed by the wisdom found in Thy words  and by all the marvels that were wrought by Thee.

Verse 4. From the morning watch until night, from the morning watch let Israel trust in the Lord.

Christ, the Bestower of Wisdom, the Giver of all good things, * Who poureth forth divine streams from a never-ending spring, * crieth out: Come unto Me, all ye that thirst, * draw forth and drink the water of life. * And thus shall rivers of grace and divine gifts  issue freely from within yourselves.

From the Menaion in Tone IV

Verse 3. For with the Lord there is mercy and with Him is abundant redemption, and He will deliver Israel from all his iniquities.

O blessed Job, thou wast known to be * righteous and guileless, * truthful, blameless and faithful, * abstaining from every evil thing, * truly adorned with the virtues * and resplendent in piety. * Wherefore, we call thee blessed * and, rejoicing, we celebrate today  thy holy and honored festival.

Verse 2. Praise the Lord, all ye nations; praise Him, all ye people.

Arrayed in the riches of piety * as in a costly robe of purple, * and adorned with mercy and righteousness * as with a divine crown, * thou didst exercise dominion * over the tyrannical passions, * O blameless Job; * wherefore, thou hast passed over to the noetic kingdom,  to stand before the eternal King, O most glorious one.

Verse 1. For His mercy is great toward us, and the truth of the Lord endureth forever.

Let us praise Job, the blameless favorite of the Lord, * who, amid his trials, * was unconquered by the sores of his flesh, * the unshaken pillar, who was recognized by all * as a bulwark of courage, * who with his wisdom-loving mind * broke the sting of the devil, * the godly and divinely wise one,  the confirmation of the pious.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; both now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

Tone II

When Thou camest into the temple at Mid-feast, O Christ God, * Thou didst teach the people, saying: * He that believeth in Me, though he die, yet shall he live. * And the Jews, together with the Pharisees and Sadducees and Scribes, * gnashed their teeth, and said: * Who is this man that speaketh blasphemies? * For they knew not that Thou art He Who art glorified from before all ages, * together with the Father and the Spirit,  O our God, Glory be to Thee.

O GLADSOME LIGHT

O gladsome Light of the holy glory of the immortal, heavenly, holy and blessed Father: O Jesus Christ. Lo now that we have come to the setting of the sun, as we behold the evening light, we hymn Thee: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, God. Meet it is for Thee at all times to be magnified by joyous voices, O Son of God and Giver of life. Wherefore the whole world doth glorify Thee.

PROKEIMENON, IN TONE IV:

The Lord will hearken unto me * when I cry unto Him

Verse: When I called upon Thee, O God of my righteousness, Thou didst hearken unto me.

The Lord will hearken unto me * when I cry unto Him

THE EVENING PRAYER

Vouchsafe, O Lord, to keep us this evening without sin. Blessed art Thou, O Lord, the God of our fathers, and praised and glorified is Thy Name forever. Amen.

Let Thy mercy be upon us, O Lord, even as we have set our hope on Thee. Blessed art Thou, O Lord; teach me Thy statutes. Blessed art Thou, O Master; make me to understand Thy statutes. Blessed art Thou, O Holy One; enlighten me with Thy statutes.

Thy mercy, O Lord, endureth forever. O despise not the works of Thy hands. To Thee belongeth worship, to Thee belongeth praise, to Thee belongeth glory: to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

Choir: Lord, have mercy. (forty times)

Leader: Through the prayers of our Holy Fathers, Lord Jesus Christ our God, have mercy upon us and save us.

Choir: Amen.

APOSTICHA - TONE IV:

Thou didst annul the sentence of the tree of disobedience, O Savior, * by being nailed willingly to the Tree of the Cross. * And by descending into Hades, O Mighty One, * as God Thou didst rend asunder the bonds of death. * Wherefore, we worship Thy Resurrection from the dead, * while crying out in gladness:  O Almighty Lord, glory be to Thee.

*Verse: Unto Thee have I lifted up mine eyes, unto Thee that dwellest in heaven. Behold, as the eyes of servants look unto the hands of their masters, as the eyes of the handmaid look unto the hands of her mistress, so do our eyes look unto the Lord our God, * until He take pity on us.*

What man who is tempest-tossed and hasteneth to this blest haven is not saved? * Who, falling down in affliction and entreaty at the infirmary of healing, is not healed? * O Thou Creator of all things * and Physician of the ailing,  O Lord, before I utterly perish, do Thou save me.

*Verse: Have mercy on us, O Lord, have mercy on us, for greatly are we filled with abasement. Greatly hath our soul been filled therewith; let reproach come upon them that prosper, * and abasement on the proud.*

O Thou Who dost accept the patient endurance of the holy Martyrs, * accept also this hymnody from us, * O Lover of mankind. * By their entreaties,  do Thou grant us great mercy.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; both now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

Tone III

At Mid-feast we glorify Him * Who hath wrought salvation in the midst of the earth. * In the midst of two thieves did Life hang upon a Tree; * He was silent unto the one that blasphemed, * but unto the other who believed, * He cried aloud saying: * Today thou shalt be with Me in Paradise. * Having descended into the grave, He despoiled Hades,  and arose on the third day, saving our souls.

THE DISMISSAL TROPARION, IN TONE VIII:

At Mid-feast give Thou my thirsty soul to drink of the waters of piety; * for Thou, O Savior, didst cry out to all: * Whosoever is thirsty, let him come to Me and drink.  Wherefore, O Well-spring of life, Christ our God, glory be to Thee.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; Tone I

Seeing the richness of the virtues of Job, * the enemy of the righteous plotted to steal them; * yet though he broke down the tower of his body, * he could not steal the treasure of his spirit: * for he who, having stripped me naked, took me captive * found the soul of the blameless one fully armed. * Wherefore, anticipating my need before the end, O Savior,  deliver me from the deceiver and save me.

Both now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen. Tone VIII
